

FEATURED SPEAKER

Representative Peggy McGaugh

District 39 – Chariton, Carroll, and Ray counties
Missouri House of Representatives

BIO

Rep. Peggy McGaugh (R-Carrollton) was elected in 2018 to replace her son, Judge Joe Don McGaugh (R-Carrollton), in a special election. The previous district included the counties of Ray, Carroll and Chariton.

McGaugh served as a Carroll County's clerk for decades and is a leader on policy as it relates to secure elections. Prior to serving in the legislature, McGaugh served as the treasurer of the Missouri Association of County Clerks and Election Authorities. Previously, she was the president of the Missouri Association of Counties and served as the vice president of the Missouri Public Entities Labor Relations Association.

Peggy resides in Carrollton with her husband of more than 40 years, David. Together they own and operate the McGaugh Family Show Calves with their son, Joe Don, his wife, Kassie, and granddaughters Nora Kate, Vivian, and Gemma. Jocelyn and Eric, Peggy and David's daughter and son-in-law, also live in Missouri at Kansas City. When not on the farm, Peggy and David enjoy spending time with their children and grandchildren and exhibiting their livestock throughout the region.

Photo: The Missouri Times, press release 2022