

EMCEE

Teresa Snow

Executive Director for Strategic Communications and Media Relations
University of Missouri Health Care and MU School of Medicine

BIO

Teresa Snow serves as executive director for strategic communications and media relations for University of Missouri Health Care and the MU School of Medicine. As an accredited public relations professional, Teresa serves a team dedicated to promote and protect the reputation of the academic health system whose mission is to save and improve lives in Missouri and beyond. With more than 300 members, Teresa served as chair for the Columbia Chamber of Commerce Women's Network in 2021-2022. Teresa may be best known for her 26-year career as a news anchor, reporter and newsroom leader at the ABC affiliates in St. Joseph and Columbia and the CBS affiliate in Jefferson City, Mo. Teresa is a married mother of four young adults and soon to add the title of grandmother.