OPENCLASSROOMS

OpenClassrooms, a mission-driven company, offers a fresh perspective on talent acquisition, finely tuned for the needs of small and large companies.

Why partner with OpenClassrooms?

- Unlike traditional internships, OpenClassrooms offers apprenticeship programs that are designed to bridge the gap between learning and doing.
- Overcome tech talent shortages by creating a future-proof talent pipeline.
- Our programs are designed to foster diversity and inclusion. Our rich and varied talent pool mirrors the complexities of the global market and can spark innovation, inspire better solutions, and align with your organizational values.
- OpenClassrooms continuously builds partnerships across the country to secure funding and provide its customers with significant financial incentives to launch apprenticeship programs.
